

and new graduates. Their large, fast-paced hospital is a 24-7 multi-specialty referral, emergency/critical care facility. Their technicians have a large responsibility in the management of the interesting and challenging cases they treat, so you will definitely use your skills to their maximum potential. This is a great place to pursue a veterinary technician specialty degree. Their pay and benefits are extremely competitive – so employee turnover is very low. With their flexible schedule, you'll have plenty of time to relax and enjoy the beaches, the Keys, Disney, etc.!

Visit their website @ www.amccc.com. Call or email Suzanne at (954) 432-5611 or sktud@bellsouth.net or fax your resume to (954) 437-7207. Let them send you some information about South Florida or set up a time to tour the hospital and meet their staff.

February 16, 2005

Contact DH DeForge, VMD:

1-800-838-3368 or E-mail DonDeForge@aol.com
Fax 203-877-8301- Personal Resume to Dr. DeForge

F/T or P/T Technician Position-Open to NCCC students working toward eventual technician certification; Quality general practice with emphasis on diagnostics and referral medicine and surgery. State of the art anesthesia department. Introduction to oral medicine, oral surgery, and oral radiology at specialist level.

February 16, 2005

Employment opportunity for a veterinary technician in Whippany, NJ:

Immediate opening - full-time surgical appointment technician needed in a growing small animal practice in Morris County, NJ. Generous salary, 100% medical insurance, pension. No after hours emergencies. Opportunity to use and apply your knowledge and skills. E-mail resume and cover letter to Dr. Cherri Smith at WHIPPANYVETHOSP@aol.com.

Whippany Veterinary Hospital
539 Route 10
Whippany, NJ 07981

Phone (973) 386-1380 Fax (973) 386-1154

February 14, 2005

Richmond, VA. Make a difference! The Richmond Spay & Neuter Foundation is

Disclaimer:

“Lisa Taylor-Austin believes there was merit to her claims that Dr. Deforge negligently cared for her cat, Simba, and that he misrepresented whether he was a Board-certified dental specialist. Dr. Deforge denies these claims and asserts that the Department of Public Health’s veterinary board cleared him of any wrong doing. However, Dr Deforge agreed to pay $7,500.00 to compensate Ms. Taylor-Austin because he believed the risks inherent in any lawsuit and the cost of missing two weeks from his practice made it imprudent to go to trial.”

Note: My guardian’s costs for my medical care and all legal avenues exceeded $20,000.